Dear Arts Action Fund Member,

As election season heats up, the Arts Action Fund will begin sending you monthly ArtsVote 2020 updates on the latest arts policy news, resources, and events taking place to keep you informed and engaged.

Before the nation's first three early primary or caucus states began their elections, I wanted you to know that your fellow Arts Action Fund members in Iowa, New Hampshire, and Nevada were armed with our Questions to Ask, up-to-the-minute State Arts Factsheets, and Arts Policy Platforms to engage presidential candidates on the arts and arts education. Coming up next are South Carolina and the 14 Super Tuesday states.

I also wanted to share with you the following one-stop landing page for all 415,613 of our members across the country at ArtsActionFund.org/ArtsVote so you can easily access these ArtsVote 2020 resources, including:

- Political Election Calendars
- Questions to Ask Pocket Card
- ArtsVote 2020 Podcast Interviews of Presidential Candidates with Ben Folds
- 2020 Arts Platform Petition for the DNC and RNC
- #ArtsVote 2020 Social Media Toolkit

Please share these materials with your friends and family. And, if you haven't already, consider a contribution to the Arts Action Fund today.
